

HEALTH PROMOTION & WELLNESS (HPW)

Vice President: Jannette Diaz (diazj@congreso.net, ext. 1317)

Division Manager: Elizabeth Acosta (acosae@congreso.net, ext.1315)

Operations Coordinator: Jasmine Woods (woods@congreso.net, ext.1313)

Programs	Program Description	Contact
Congreso Health Center	The Congreso Health Center offers adult and family medicine, health education, gynecology, pregnancy testing, contraception, confidential testing for HIV and sexually transmitted infections, and social work services.	Judith Ferguson fergusonj@congreso.net 215-825-8281
HIV Medical Case Management	Medical case management services program for individuals living with HIV/AIDS.	Samuel Romero romeros@congreso.net 215-763-8870 x 1237
HIV Counseling and Testing Services/ACHPP	HIV Testing Services is a free HIV prevention program focused on individuals at risk of contracting HIV, targeting 18-45 year olds. HIV testing is conducted onsite and throughout Philadelphia via a mobile van. HIV education workshops can also be arranged.	Faith Mole molef@congreso.net 215-763-8870 x 1337
Breastfeeding Support	This program offers breastfeeding education and support to pregnant and post-partum women. Services can be provided at Congreso, Health Center 6, Health Center 10 and in home.	Ana Tapia tapiaa@congreso.net 215-763-8870 x 1312
Latina Domestic Violence Program (LDVP)	Counseling and advocacy program for adult and child victims of domestic violence including children who have witnessed domestic violence.	Ramona Peralta peraltar@congreso.net 215-763-8870 x 1339
East Division Crime Victim Advocacy Project	Offers client centered, trauma-informed services to members of the community who have experienced a crime. This program is offered on site at Congreso and in the community.	Ramona Peralta peraltar@congreso.net 215-763-8870 x 1339
Civil Legal Representation Program	This program focuses on legal advice and representation in family law matters for victims of domestic violence. Information and referrals are available for other areas of law as well.	Anne Armistead armistead@congreso.net 215-763-8870 x 1342